1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Directors are given letters of appointment and/or service agreements, and senior executives are given employment contracts prior to their engagement by the Company.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company has a company secretary appointed by and is responsible to the Board through the Chairperson. The Chairperson and the company secretary will co-ordinate the Board agenda.
1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: 1. the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; 2. the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and 3. either: i. the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or ii. if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	No No No	Due to the Company's stage of development and number of employees, the Board has decided not to implement a diversity policy. The Board will consider whether to adopt such a policy in the future.
1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes Yes	The performance of the Board as a group and of individual Directors will be assessed each year for all future years. In particular, all Directors seeking re-election at an annual general meeting will be subject to a formal performance appraisal to determine whether the Board (with their absenting themselves) recommends their re-election to shareholders. An informal performance appraisal of each Director individually and the Board as a whole was undertaken during the reporting period. No adverse findings were identified.
1.7	A listed entity should:

	position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes	The Company has disclosed the details of each Director (including their length of service) in its FY21 Annual Report.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	No	As noted in section 2.3, the Board considers two out of five of its Directors to be independent Directors. Despite not having a majority of independent Directors, the Board is satisfied that the composition of the Board reflects an appropriate range of independence, skills and experience for the Company. The Board will regularly review the independence of each Director.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Yes	The Company's current Chairperson, Malcolm Jones, is an independent director.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing director to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	Each new Director will, upon appointment, participate in an induction programme. This will include meeting with members of the existing Board, Company Secretary, management and other relevant executives to familiarise themselves with the Company, its procedures and prudential requirements, and Board practices and procedures.
3	Instil a Culture of Acting Lawfully, Ethically and Responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	Yes	The Company articulates and discloses the Company's values in its Code of Conduct.
